The reviewer had a terrible experience with their children's birthday party, which they never want to repeat. They planned the party at 12 PM but were told to wait due to another party and couldn't set up until 12:45 PM. The staff tried to gaslight them, offering extra time instead of apologizing for the delay. They also experienced difficulties ordering extra pizza and had a rude encounter with cafe staff. The reviewer is angry about the unprofessional business practices and recommends avoiding this place if you value your sanity. On the other hand, they mention that the trampoline park has clean facilities, beautiful decorations, and decent prices compared to others in the area. However, it's smaller than expected, and there's limited seating for observers.
