Expect with snow, skiing, snowboarding, thrilling outdoor activities, and unforgettable electronic music performances. Over 150 of the planet’s greatest artists will perform across 7 indoor and outdoor stages, set both on the mountains and within the ski resort (also accessible for non-skiers and pedestrians), including a brand-new covered Mainstage, CORE, Cage and Frozen Lotus, as well as The Reflection of Love and Amare. The breathtaking indoor Mainstage will be taking visitors along Paperworld, the parchment patchwork of all Tomorrowland tales ever told, forming into words, sentences, and ultimately stories, which can each turn into a unique world of their own.After a series of spectacular shows around the world, the legendary new CORE stage is making its way to Alpe d’Huez to kick off the year in style, welcoming world-class performances alongside a spectacular audiovisual experience by the scene’s finest acts in house and techno. The stage’s defining feature is a human head split down the middle by a large screen. This year’s Frozen Lotus stage will again feature lots of nature elements and greenery with beautiful plants and flowers, while the legendary Amare stage will once again soar from its nest and touch down in the mountains.Performing at every edition of Tomorrowland WinterSeveral artists will be making their fifth consecutive appearance at Tomorrowland Winter in 2025, having performed at every edition since the festival’s debut in 2019. These include AFROJACK, Dimitri Vegas, Kölsch, Lost Frequencies, Netsky, Regi, Steve Aoki, Sunnery James & Ryan Marciano, and Yves V – each bringing their signature sounds to the breathtaking mountain setting once again.France’s finest DJs and producersTomorrowland Winter 2025 will showcase some of the finest French artists on the global electronic music scene. Live artist and DJ/producer Pablo Bozzi and the iconic Jennifer Cardini will be joining forces for a special b2b performance, promising fresh music and an exciting show high up in the beautiful mountains. Alex Wann, the Parisian DJ & producer who took the music world by storm with his afro house record ‘Milkshake’, Rivo, known for his viral remix of Disclosure’s classic hit ‘You & Me’, as well as multi-disciplinary artist Agoria, brother duo Betical, Latin house master HUGEL, Marseille based DJ & producer Matt Sassari, Paris-based female rising talent Philou and hard techno star VIDO will all deliver an exclusive performance.Local talents Galluxy and Ewave, who began their Tomorrowland Winter journey on the festival’s smallest stages years ago, are set for a major milestone. The rising stars will take the spotlight on the first day, opening the Mainstage together with an electrifying back-to-back performance, marking a proud moment in their careers.Unique back-to-back sets The People of Tomorrow can look forward to a series of exclusive back-to-back sets in the mountains, featuring performances by Armin van Buuren b2b Joris Voorn, Dimitri Vegas b2b Steve Aoki, Dino Lenny b2b Yulia Niko, Emilia b2b Helena Lauwaert, Ewave b2b Galluxy, HAAI b2b DJ BORING, Jennifer Cardini b2b Pablo Bozzi, Kölsch b2b Kevin de Vries, NERVO b2b B Jones, Yves V b2b Regi, and more.Atmosphere at Tomorrowland WinterOn the final day of Tomorrowland Winter, Tomorrowland’s Atmosphere concept will take over the Cage, bringing harder sounds and raw energy to the forefront and pushing the limits of electronic music. On the line-up: CARV, NOVAH, Portex, and VIDO, promising an unforgettable experience for those who crave intense, boundary-pushing performances.Exciting winter activities in the mountains of Alpe d’HuezFestivalgoers can enjoy various exciting winter activities in the mountains of Alpe d’Huez to make the most of Tomorrowland Winter, including Start to DJ workshops, dogsled rides, electric bike rides, paragliding experiences, snowshoeing, outdoor mountain yoga, snake gliss, Alpine coaster rides, and more. Amidst the beautiful mountains, Tomorrowland’s Tastes of the World cuisine offers guests delicious mountain food specialties with a bunch of unique restaurant experiences, food stands (each stand offers a vegetarian option as well), outdoor barbecues, cheese fondues & raclettes, cocktails & mocktails and more than 50 other restaurants & bars in Alpe d’Huez to recharge after a day in the mountains. All festivalgoers with 7- and 4-Day Tomorrowland Winter Packages are staying in Alpe d’Huez or one of the surrounding villages, while the ski resort remains open for other visitors as well.Discover ParisBrand-new this year: the Discover Paris program offers people a unique 3-day travel adventure to discover the mesmerizing French capital with other festivalgoers from all over the world before the start of Tomorrowland Winter. A local Discover Paris host will welcome you at your accommodation in Paris and will assure you make the most out of your trip, including the city’s famous and most iconic architecture, paintings, restaurants, fashion and landmarks, as well as a bunch of hidden gems along the way.Check out the full line-up and timetable of Tomorrowland Winter 2025 on tomorrowland.com.Tomorrowland Winter 2025March 15-22, 2025Alpe d’Huez, Francetomorrowland.com Inspired by the magical ‘Amicorum Spectaculum’, the legendary fourth edition of Tomorrowland Winter took place from March 16-23, 2024.
